

HOPE IN HARD TIMES, PART 2

How has living with and for Jesus become more integrated throughout your life?

“What if instead of causing us to doubt or question our faith, the hard times were actually the means to a richer more meaningful life?”

Share your thoughts on this with a friend.

How has suffering made you (your character) better? Are there ways in which suffering has caused you to be bitter?

What do you need to grieve with Jesus? When will you breathe with Jesus on purpose this week?
