

WHO NEEDS A HUG?

What was it like to engage with Jesus in your imagination in prayer? What was it like to be a child with Him?

Do you relate to God as Father? What has your experience of God the Father been like?

God is not a cruel tyrant or an executioner. How might your view of God the Father need to expand or change?

Is there a situation in which you need to choose to believe God's fatherly heart and motivation toward you is love?
