

GOD IS WITH YOU

Do you relate to the image of life being like a haunted house at times, with things coming at you from all directions? What are some of the “demons” you’re reacting to right now?

If you were to imagine walking through your day with Jesus, what is your posture like? Are you walking confidently with Him, just trying to get through it, or something else?

What does Matthew 1:23 mean to you?
How have you experienced God with you?

Which of the three practical applications for being WITH God will you try this week: Eucharistic adoration, slowly praying “Jesus, I trust in you” or holding hands with Him in the car (or anywhere!)?