

GOT FIVE MINUTES?

What is your current prayer routine?
Do you usually feel connected to God in those times?

What would you like your relationship with God to be like? What do you imagine God hopes for your relationship?

Did you resonate with any of the states Beth described: distant, discontented or discerning? Which one and why?

Where can you identify opportunities in your day for spending time with Jesus in prayer?