

WHEN IN DOUBT

Have you ever second guessed your discernment?
How did you deal with your doubts?

Looking back, how can you draw from the graces you experienced in consolation? Moving forward, how will you store up consolation?

What does it mean to you to ignore desolation?
What does that look like practically?

Saint Ignatius urges us to stay with the plan.
What spiritual and practical resolutions
do you need to recommit to?