

QUESTIONS FOR REFLECTION

Think of your favorite Gospel story of an interaction between someone and Jesus. Why is it meaningful to you? How does this apply to your friendships? How does this apply to your friendship with yourself?

How is Jesus a friend to you? Think of a time when you really felt God's presence or intervention. List some characteristics of the way He was with you. (For example: He was gentle but direct.) Why are these characteristics meaningful to you?

Jesus desires an ever-deepening, abiding friendship with you. You are always on His heart and mind. What do your answers to the first two questions stir your heart? Do they stir new action items? If so, choose one, make it doable, and practice as soon as you can.

Write or talk with Jesus about your hopes and dreams for your friendships.
