

SCRIPTURE IS LIKE AN ONION

Do you have a favorite Gospel passage? What's one Gospel account that gets richer and more meaningful for you every time you read it?

Which of these three practical tips will you try in your daily Scripture time this week: invite a friend to read with you, read a shorter section of Scripture, read for one takeaway?

What was your one takeaway from Mark 1:35-39. Share it with a friend!

When was the last time you searched for God in prayer and found Him? What was that like?
