

GOOD THINGS ARE COMING

When has something not gone your way, but ended up being a blessing?

Do you believe like the Psalmist that you “will see the goodness of the Lord in the land of the living”? What keeps you from believing in His goodness?

Have you ever memorized Scripture intentionally? If so, what was it? Or what verse would you like to commit to heart?

What are you waiting for? What have you been hoping for? Share that desire with a friend and tell God in prayer.
