

JOHN CHAPTER SIXTEEN: ASK HIM ANYTHING

Which question for the Lord do you resonate with most? What is going on beneath that question?

How might it be a mercy, an act of loving kindness, for the Lord not to tell us everything because we “cannot bear it now”? (John 16:12)

What was it like to relate your questions to the Lord from your heart?
What did He do or say?

What was YOUR takeaway from John chapter sixteen?
